JUDGE W. H. COOK IS ANNOUNCED FOR SUPREME JUDGESHIP

Gives An Interesting Statement Concerning His History—One of Interest and Activity—Has Held Several Positions of Bar, Justice, Circuit and Supreme—Has Had Experience and Excellent Academic Equipment.

HIS LIFE HAS BEEN ONE OF ENDEAVOR AND STUDY.

Tells of the Oath and Says He Will Continue to Administer Justice According to This Precept—Has Been Faithful in the Discharge of His Duties, and Is Rendering Faithful and Competent Service—His Statement Is Interesting and Worthy of Perusal.

I take this method of bringing to the attention of the men and women of Mississippi the fact that I am a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, from the Southern District.

I was appointed one of the judges of the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Stevens, and I am now performing the duties of this responsible office. Under the elective judiciary system in full force in Mississippi my appointment to the vacancy was temporary, and it is now the privilege of the Democratic voters of the district themselves to select a judge, not only for the unexpired term, ending May 10th, 1924, but also in the primary election to be held August 15th, to select a judge for the ensuing or full term beginning May, 1924.

At the time of my appointment I was a resident of, and had been practicing my profession in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, for twenty-two years. In accepting the appointment to the Supreme Court bench, it became necessary for me to move to Jackson, where our Supreme Court is continuously in session for nine months of the year, and therefore I was compelled to break up housekeeping, move my little effects to the city of Jackson, provide a home there for myself and family at great expense, and to be constantly busy in the performance of my judicial duties. Our court is at work six days in the week, and only adjourns on July 10th. To this the highest tribunal of the State, is committed the life, liberty and property rights of the people. The court has been so busy, and my duties so exacting, that I have not been able to visit all the counties in the district, thirty in number, and may not be able to do so before the primary.

Inasmuch as I could not leave my post of duty before the adjournment of court to engage in a general campaign, it may be proper for me here to say that I am a graduate of the literary and law departments of our State University; that I began the practice of law at Hattiesburg twenty-four years ago; that I was elected police justice of the city of Hattiesburg at a time when the law-abiding citizenship of that rapidly growing city was seeking a leader in a campaign for a strict enforcement of the criminal laws in that city; that I served one year as district attorney and four years as circuit judge of the Twelfth Circuit Court District, and that I am now performing the duties of Supreme Court judge fearlessly, and to the best of my ability. A candidate for judge is in no wise responsible for, and has nothing to do with legislation. He can only pledge to the people his purpose to be diligent in the performance of his duties, and to be true to the very oath administered to every judge. This oath states my platform. It binds me to—

"Administer justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me, according to the best of my ability and understanding, agreeably to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the State of Mississippi."

I have been true and will continue to be true to this oath. In the language of a great statesman, a judge—

"Shall know nothing about the parties, everything about the case. He shall do everything for justice; nothing for himself; nothing for his sovereign. If on one side is the executive power and the legislature and the people—the sources of his honor, the givers of his daily bread, and on the other an individual, nameless and odious, his eye is to see neither great nor small."

I believe in the prompt dispatch of the business of the courts. I have always stood for law enforcement. My record in this regard speaks for itself. But while I believe in the prompt and rigid enforcement of the law, I have remembered that justice should always be tempered with mercy.

I was born and reared in Neshoba county, 47 years of age; am married and have three children. I have no money to lavish in an expensive campaign. Such a campaign would be improper if I had the means. Our court did not adjourn until July 10th, and this leaves me practically thirty days before the primary on August 15th to campaign the thirty counties of the district. During that short time it will be utterly impossible for me to attend all of the political gatherings, or to accept very many of the invitations that are constantly coming to me to visit various communities. It is, therefore, necessary for me to leave my candidacy to the sense of fairness and fair dealing which animates the hearts of the men and women of our commonwealth. I invite you to investigate my record as a man, a citizen and a public official, and if I have been faithful in the discharge of my official duties in the past, and am rendering faithful and competent service on the Supreme Court bench now, I ask that you, in keeping with the old and established Democratic custom, retain my services for the remainder of the unexpired term and for a full term.

In submitting my candidacy to you and asking for your vote and influence, I do so solely upon my record as a man, a citizen and a judge.

Yours truly,

W. H. COOK.

STATE PRINTING LAW UPHOLD, ROBERSON

HOME PRINTING MUST BE DONE IN MISSISSIPPI.

Attorney Says Work Done Outside of State Can Not Be Paid For.

In reply to an inquiry for an interpretation of the public printing law, requiring printing to be done by concerns inside the State of Mississippi, Attorney General Roberson has rendered an opinion that will settle some of the Mississippi printers who are sending work outside of the State on dummy contracts, and some outside printers who have contracts with the State.

Under the law, the purpose was evidently to prevent letting contracts for printing to persons or firms outside of the State. Yet many State concerns have bid in contracts for work which they cannot do and have been sending this work to outside concerns. For example, there is a lot of lithographing work contracted for under the State contracts, and there is but one lithographing plant in the State. Besides this, the printing of the Mississippi reports of the Supreme Court is contracted for by an outside firm. And there is considerable other work by various departments, colleges, etc., that is sent out of the State.

Under the Constitution of the State, section 107, contracts for printing, stationery, etc., for the departments of the government, shall be contracted for as may be prescribed by law. The law provides that all such stationery and printing shall be furnished and done by firms located in Mississippi.

The opinion not only affects State contracts, but also affects contracts for county printing, which are included in the law. Under the opinion of the attorney general, no money can be legally paid out of the treasury for printing of any kind that is done outside of the State, by any office, institution, college or department of State government. The opinion is in a letter addressed to J. R. Oliphant, of the Issue Publishing Company, and is as follows:

"Mr. J. R. Oliphant, Manager, The Issue Publishing Company, Jackson, Mississippi:

"My Dear Sir—I have your request of the 30th ultimo for an opinion, which is as follows:

"In the payment of bills for public printing out of public funds, will you please give your opinion as to what departments of State and county governments and State institutions are governed by Chapter 135, Laws of 1916?

"Chapter 135, Laws of 1916, is what is commonly known as the home printing bill statute, which defines a responsible bidder within the meaning of section 107 of the constitution, as one who has a printing plant in this State, or one who is a bona fide resident of this State, engaged in the printing business. This statute provides further, that no contract shall be sub-let to any person who is not a responsible bidder, as above set forth.

"This chapter 135 only amends a part of chapter 205, laws of 1912. Chapter 205, laws of 1912, section 1, amended section 284 of the code of 1906, and provides that the State Board of Public Contracts is created to carry out the provisions of section 107 of the constitution.

"The next question in which we would be interested is section 107 of the Constitution, which reads as follows:

"Section 107—All stationery, printing, paper and fuel used by the Legislature and other departments of the government shall be furnished and shall be performed under contract, to be given to the lowest bidder, below such maximum and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, etc.

"Your precise inquiry resolves itself into the determination of what the phrase 'departments of government' found in section 107 of the constitution include.

"I am of the opinion that the departments of government as used in this section of the constitution would include all offices, departments, institutions, colleges and, in fact, all offices or institutions supported by the State.

"This construction of the section is borne out, in my judgment, by section 3785, code of 1906 (section 6458, Hemingway's Code), defining 'department reports.' This section is as follows:

"The department reports consist of

HOW LONG IS DIPPING CATTLE NECESSARY?

"HOW LONG DO WE HAVE TO DIP?" IS THE QUESTION.

It Is Owing to the Co-Operation Given By All Concerned.

Progress in the eradication of the cattle tick depends on the manner in which stock owners co-operate in the dipping of their cattle. Dr. W. H. Cooper, district inspector, hands out the following paper on the subject, addressed "To All Persons Owning Cattle or Stock Subject to Dipping," and issued by Dr. J. Stotchly, veterinarian, inspector Bureau of Animal Industry, supervising tick eradication in Bastrop county, Texas:

"How Long Do We Have To Dip?"

One year or several years, depending upon how you dip.

Every one naturally would want to get done with the dipping in the shortest time possible, so let us have a clear understanding of what it takes to do it.

Dipping all of the cattle—all of them—at the regular specified intervals of 14 days will clean the county in one year. This means 100 per cent dipping. In proportion as the dipping is less than 100 per cent it will take longer to clean the county. And here is the reason for it:

The fever tick spends part of its life on the ground and part on cattle. It lays its eggs on the ground—from 3,000 to 5,000—and these eggs hatch out on the ground into so-called seed ticks. Now this seed tick will eat only one kind of food, namely, red fresh blood of cattle, horses, mules or asses, and nothing else. Let even the blood of jack rabbits or any other wild animal—such is its nature, remember we are talking only of the fever tick—not any other kind of tick. This means that the seed tick will not grow until it gets on cattle, horses, mules or asses and gets to suck their blood. If it is lucky enough to get hold of one of these animals it will live in the blood for a long time without food, and it will not grow or multiply.

After the seed tick gets on one of the above mentioned animals and begins to suck the blood it begins to grow, and after it has grown to maturity it falls to the ground, lays its 3,000 to 5,000 eggs and dies.

The object in dipping is to kill the tick before it falls to the ground and goes to raising his big family, and it takes dipping every fourteen days to catch the tick before he falls to the ground.

Naturally, if you dip only part of your cattle, the part that you failed to dip will drop off enough ticks to keep your pasture infected all the time. This is the reason why it takes regular dipping of all the cattle as well as horses, mules and asses ranging out in the pasture—regular dipping of all of them to get rid of ticks in one year.

It pays to make the effort to dip all your cattle and have the whole community co-operate to that end, unless you would rather keep on dipping for years.

In the event the county is ready for release at the end of the year with the exception of a few individual premises whose owners failed to clean up, those premises will remain under quarantine and will have to continue dipping every fourteen days all next year or until the clean up.

It is well, therefore, to look ahead now and by dipping all of your cattle regularly to insure yourself against the possibility of having to contend with an individual quarantine on your premises and the necessity of dipping an extra year, besides being a source of danger to the whole neighborhood and county.

As an additional protection against the possibility of scattering ticks from premises to premises and from county to county the quarantine regulations provide that all movements of the governor's message and reports of all officers and institutions required by law to be made for the information of the Legislature, etc.

"The fact that this definition is found in the chapter on printing is of some importance. I am, therefore, constrained to advise that the departments of State government which are included in chapter 135, laws of 1916, are all departments of State governments, offices and institutions and boards supported by the State, which are required to make reports to the State Legislature.

"I think section 2 of the laws of 1916 clearly defines the application of the statute as to the counties."

of cattle should be under a permit issued by an authorized agent for. You will observe that it is to your best interest to clean up your time you move cattle without a permit you lay yourself liable to court action and are setting back the work of tick eradication.

Help your inspector keep track of all the cattle moving across the county line. Where pastures extend from one county into the other, special arrangements will be made for mutual protection.

You will find the work of eradicating the fever tick of enormous benefit to you, but its success depends upon your whole-hearted and active co-operation.

Read this circular carefully and if there is any part of it you do not understand ask your inspector to explain it.

TODAY'S BAY-WAVELAND REGATTA.

The one big event of the year for the Bay-Waveland Regatta Club will take place this afternoon, and for this occasion His Honor, Mayor R. W. Webb, has issued a special proclamation declaring from 1 to 5 o'clock this Saturday afternoon half-day holiday. The event of events taking place this afternoon is the Annual Regatta. This will be the first one under the auspices of the newly organized Bay-Waveland Yacht and Athletic Association.

"It is conservatively expected there will be over one thousand visitors," said Chairman Louis H. Burns of the regatta committee to The Echo this morning, "and this number, augmented with our local population, will make some number. And it will be a fine day."

"I have arranged," he continued, "with Captain Dracett, who operates the ferry between Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian, to continue the ferry service until after midnight, Sunday July 14th, in order that people at all points of the Mississippi Gulf Coast who may want to come to Bay St. Louis in their own automobiles and stay in the big hall during this Saturday evening can do so and return to their homes in their cars the same night."

It might be interesting to know that in addition to Captain Burns' statement, the fact of the ferry running in the afternoon has been advertised in the Bixby and Gulfport and daily newspapers.

All Arrangements Complete.

Every arrangement for the Regatta and ball is complete. The committees have been hard at work. It has been unrelenting effort intelligently and almost incessantly applied. No drones on the committee. In fact, the live ones were picked out. The chairman of each committee with his different co-workers have been busy, allowing no detail to remain untended.

As to the committees, here they are:

Officers—E. J. Leonard, commodore; Edgar M. Rea, vice commodore; E. V. Richards, rear commodore; Clem Penrose, fleet captain; Dr. C. L. Horton, fleet surgeon; C. G. Ferguson, Y. A. Mermilliod, W. J. Estoup, measurers; L. Wadsworth, Winfield Partridge, W. W. Chapman, timers; G. W. Chapman, Frank Green, Lee B. Edwards, W. H. Parham, judges.

Regatta Committee—L. H. Burns, chairman. Sub-Committees: Racing—C. G. Ferguson, chairman; W. Partridge, G. W. Chapman, W. W. Chapman, W. H. Parham, Lee B. Edwards, Chas. Breath, Chas. A. Breath, C. A. Mermilliod, W. J. Estoup, L. Wadsworth.

Reception—B. C. Shields, chairman, E. J. Lacoste, P. V. Lacoste, S. Palangue, Harry Perry, W. H. Renshaw, R. W. Webb, Adam Lorch, R. N. Blaize, Jos. Ritzky, W. H. Starr, S. L. Engman, Aug. Scafide, A. J. Piazza, Edw. Briggs, W. F. Oaks.

Entertainment—J. Ocinach, chairman; Chas. A. Moreau, H. S. Saucier, V. L. Thibodeaux, W. B. Allison, A. W. Chapman, Jas. Geary, R. P. Hyams, Chas. Thiel, A. E. Mill, Harold Weston, Roland Weston, J. S. DeBen, Justin Green, Aug. Schiro, Ed. Schwartz, G. R. Rea.

There will be dancing at the Club Auditorium during the afternoon and a different band will supply the music at night. Added decorations have enhanced the interior of the club house in a manner most striking.

Since the success of the Bay-Waveland Yacht and Athletic Club is a foregone conclusion, it is noteworthy to dwell on the club's activity, how in so comparatively a short time the clubhouse preceded by the organization of the club has been accomplished, and truly there is much room for congratulation.

BOLTERS CAN NOT HOLD MEETING AT ENTER PRIMARIES COURT HOUSE IN CITY

Chairman of Mississippi Democratic Executive Committee Rules That Democrats Who Formerly Voted Republican Ticket Because of Their Aligned Dislike to President Wilson Will Not Be Allowed to Vote in August Primaries, Either Thru or As They Wish.

JUDGE POWELL SAYS "REPENTANCE ALWAYS IS WHOLESOME"

Local Democratic Executive Committee and Management Local Election Are Urged to That None But Democrats Vote in August Primaries, Vote in August 15th.

Jackson, Miss., July 13.—Speaking of the action of the Democratic executive committee in barring several thousand one-time Democrats from the polls in the August primary, Judge Robert Powell, chairman of the committee, says that some of the penitents are proclaiming they have reformed, that they are sorry they bolted the party because of their dislike to former President Wilson, and that they are anxious to get back into the Democratic fold.

"Repentance always is wholesome," says Judge Powell, "and we are glad to hear it, but they will have to stay on the mourners' bench a while. The State committee acted within its legal authority in requiring that bolters be barred from the August primary, and that Republicans and Socialists, who have participated freely in our party primaries in the past, also be prevented taking part in the election."

"It is important, therefore, that county executive committees and election officers see that the rule is enforced, and that true-blue Democrats remain at the polls on election day to challenge all efforts at illegal voting. There was not a dissenting vote in the State committee when this rule was adopted, and there should be no dissent in the election precincts or any violation of the order. If the bolters, Republicans and Socialists want to avoid unpleasantness they will stay away from the polls on August 15.

"The security of the South rests on a solid Democratic front and men who quit the ranks, even temporarily, must expect punishment of some form. Application of the rule is exceedingly simple. A man is either a Democrat or he isn't and that is all there is to it. Speaking as a veteran who has been through many hard-fought battles for the Democrats, I can find no excuse for any man not being a Democrat. If he wants to be something else he, of course, has a right to be, but he must not attempt to meddle in our family affairs. The proper place for Republicans and Socialists on election day will be at home. There will be no room for them in the election booth."

CARD OF THANKS.

Although slightly delayed the sincerity is none the less, the Order of the Eastern Star wishes to formally acknowledge its thanks and appreciation to one and all who participated and in any wise took part in the recent presentation of "The Microbe of Love." We are deeply appreciative and wish to express our thanks.

MRS. TEMPLE PERKINS, Matron.

BIG CROWD HERE TODAY.

Large crowds are here for the week-end. Bay St. Louis and Waveland have their quota of the visitors. The Regatta has brought them here. They are welcome. May their stay be of much pleasure.

A DISGUISED TAX.

The proposal before Congress for the stamping of a federal number on automobile engines and bodies as a supposed safeguard against theft, the cost being assessed at two dollars, to be collected from each auto owner, is of course merely another auto tax in disguise. Despite the assertion that it will protect owners just the same as they once protected themselves by branding their cattle and horses, there is no assurance whatever that the stamping of another number on machines would deter thieves any more than the stamping of the original numbers by the makers, which are made a part of the State license list. Experience in the bootlegging field has shown that the determined law-breaker is no more afraid of breaking a federal law than any other. It used to be that a man inclined toward crime flouted the laws of the towns and cities and even the State, but stopped with a sudden jolt before breaking one of Uncle Sam's laws. That time has passed, and today the man bent upon breaking a law doesn't show any more respect for a federal law than he does for one enacted by the State. We can see nothing to the proposed auto number law, but another chance to gouge auto owners.

You never know where a politician stands. But you can always tell where he lies.

The best advice we can give any citizen is to so live that you won't have to ask to have it kept out of the paper.

With so many married women throughout the country running for office we can't see how politics is going to get rid of the bosses.

It doesn't take the average citizen long to find out that a vacation would be much more pleasant if the old pocketbook could enjoy a rest, too.

The farmers of this country have a lot of nerve to be hollering for money when the wheat and cotton gamblers need it as badly.

That race horse called "Good Times" would probably attract more attention and be more popular if it was called "Time-And-A-Half."

Among other things we can't understand about our modern courts of justice is how it comes that the pretty women defendants are always acquitted.

We note a tendency on the part of several neighboring editors to grow poetic. For instance, we find in an exchange this truthful little rhyme: "I can remember, my little son, when coal was selling for three cents a ton."

JUDGE W. H. COOK.

The formal announcement of Judge W. H. Cook, candidate for re-election to the Supreme Court bench of Mississippi, appears in this issue of The Sea Coast Echo.

The Judge has been holding the present high office since October 1, 1920, and has made a splendid record. There are no issues at stake. It is a matter of qualification and personality, and Judge Cook has had a splendid record to sustain his qualifications.

He was born in Neshoba county, Mississippi, and is 47 years of age. Attended the country schools of that county and spent one session in a preparatory school near Meridian. Attended the Lexington Normal College two sessions. Taught in the public schools of Neshoba county. Entered the University of Mississippi in 1893 and graduated from the literary department in 1896. Taught Latin and Greek in St. Thomas Hall Academy at Holly Springs during the session of 1896-97. Graduated from the Law School of the University of Mississippi in 1898.

Located in Hattiesburg for the practice of law in 1898. Was Police Justice of the city of Hattiesburg in 1903 and 1904. Circuit Judge of the Twelfth Circuit Court District, composed of Forrest, Perry, Lumbard, Pearl River and Marion counties, 1906 to 1912. Democratic presidential elector in the Sixth Congressional District, 1912. District attorney of the Twelfth Circuit Court District in 1913. Served as Circuit Judge from October, 1913, to date.

The Echo commends his candidacy to the serious commendation of the voters of Hancock county, who will be called during the early part of August to cast their ballots.

CO-OPERATIVE BUYING.

We have had Hancock citizens at different times in the past few months ask us where we stand on the new "co-operative buying" plan now being tried out in many sections. Personally, we haven't given it much attention, farther than to observe that in many communities farmers are pooling for the purchase of fertilizers, and binder twines, and even farm machinery in carload lots. Of course, there is a saving. There is bound to be when buying is done in such quantities. But we can't help feeling that if they'd all buy at home and pay cash as they have to do when they are buying the new co-operative way, our merchants, agents, for farmers, binder twine, farm implements, etc., could give them just as good bargains. Not only that, but when a profit is made by a home man he turns around and spends it at home. When the money goes to some other town or city—it stays there. All this must be taken into consideration, and we can't help but feel that it is not being considered in sections where co-operative buying is now being tried out.

AFTER THE RECKLESS.

Virginia is trying out a new law, and one that is going to be watched with close interest. It provides that every autoist, on approaching a railroad crossing outside the corporate limits of a town or city, must come to a full stop not less than ten feet nor more than 100 feet from the nearest rail. Failure to observe this law is punishable by a fine of $10, and the money so collected goes into the treasury of the county in which the fine was assessed. We believe auto drivers around Bay St. Louis are as careful as are to be found anywhere, and yet many of them take unnecessary chances at railroad crossings. They will not all endorse the Virginia law, of course, because it means stopping and starting the auto more often than they are now compelled to do. But we believe that those who realize that it is better to stop for a minute than to get ground up and stop forever will declare that the law seems to possess considerable merit.

MISS LOIS COOPER TO TEACH IN CHINA MISSION SCHOOL.

Miss Lois Cooper, daughter of Dr. I. W. Cooper, of Whitworth, will sail in September for China, where she will teach music and English in a Mission school of the Methodist denomination, located in Shanghai. She has agreed to teach there for a period of three years.

Miss Cooper is a graduate of Whitworth College and the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and has done post graduate work in music or English at the Cincinnati Conservatory, in Baltimore, North Carolina, Chicago, and the University of Wisconsin. For several sessions Miss Cooper was a teacher of music at Whitworth and served as dean the past session with conspicuous success. She has also spent six months in the Y. M. C. A. service in France.

Friends and admirers of Miss Cooper will deeply regret her absence, while wishing her success in her new field of work.—Brookhaven Readers.

A QUESTION ANSWERED.

We have talked with a good many merchants in the past and among them we have struck several who frankly stated that they started to advertise once, but it didn't pay as they figured it would, so they became discouraged and quit. Always they've asked the reason, and always it was hard to make them understand, to convince them, exactly WHY their advertising failed. But now comes Herbert Casson, well known writer and publicist, expert with an article in an eastern magazine which seems to answer the question. He says:

"The man who runs an ad, no matter how convincing it is, and then stops at salesmanship in the store, isn't going to get his money's worth from the advertisement. Neither is the man who runs one ad, who makes a sudden loud noise and then drops into dead silence. That kind of man sends his advertising up like a skyrocket—it is seen for a moment and forgotten. The wise advertiser follows up the first ad with another, and then still more, and like a light-house, his ads stand there to guide the public, and their light can be seen all the time. You have to tell some people a fact two or three times before they will believe it."

"After all, advertising is only sowing the seed. After the soil and the sun and the rain have done their best, then comes the harvesting. You must reap, and stack, and thresh, and bag and sell. And also you must remember that the other man will get the business if you don't ask for it."

THE NEW BAD CHECK LAW.

For the information of the public, The Echo herewith publishes the new law touching on the issuance of bad checks. Following is the text of the law which was enacted at the 1922 session of the Mississippi Legislature:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Mississippi, That if any person shall make, issue and deliver to another person, for value, any check, draft or order on any bank or other depository and thereby obtain from such other person any credit, money, goods or property of value, and have no funds, or have insufficient funds, on deposit to his credit in said bank or depository with which such check, draft or order may be paid, and same shall not be paid by such bank or depository on presentation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, if the amount of the check, draft or order be under twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and upon conviction thereof he shall be fined not less than the amount of such check, draft or order, and not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00), or imprisoned in the county jail not less than one day nor more than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court; and if the amount of the check, draft or order shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more, he shall be guilty of a felony and on conviction shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than six months nor more than two years, and the drawer of such check, draft or order shall be prosecuted in the county in which it is drawn, whenever the prosecution may be first begun.

Provided, however, that if the person who makes, issues and delivers any such check, draft or order shall, within ten days from the time he receives written notice of the non-payment of such check, draft or order, pay the same, together with all lawful protest fees, interest and damages, if any, he shall not be prosecuted under this act, and any prosecution that may have begun within the time above mentioned shall, if payment of such check, draft or order, protest fees, interest and damages, if any, be made as aforesaid, be dismissed on payment of the costs of prosecution, by defendant. Said written notice may be given by said bank or other depository, or by the payee or drawee in said check, draft or order, or by any officer who shall protest same. JEFF COLLINS IS RECEIVED BY LARGE CROWDS.

Jeff Collins is making a strenuous campaign in the western part of the district. On the 4th of July he spoke to a tremendous audience that gathered there from every nook and corner for miles around Simpson county and the report was given out by the people who have their ear to the ground and know what they are talking about and should know what they are talking about, that Jeff would carry Marion county with a tremendous majority.

He spoke at Sumrall to about 500 people. His speech was received with wonderful attention and interest and after the speaking throngs of people gathered around and assuredly listened with wonderful interest.

He spoke at Oakvale, in Lawrence county, to about 500 people, who manifested wonderful interest.

He spoke at Oakvale, in Lawrence county, to about 500 voters and captured the crowd. Everywhere Jeff goes he is met with most flattering encouragement.

COLUMN de BULL.

By Fuller Bull.

"Fuller Bull" Writes Letter to His Friend "Red" Hogan—Having a Great Time These "Trying Days." The Palace de Jazz Charges Only One Berry to "Pick Cherries." Hashery That Had Shakespearian Name Is Now Under Revised Edition.

Mister Red Hogan
Greenwich Village
Dear Old Carrot Top:

I bet you been gazin' in the "also-passed-away" column of the Dailies for the news of my leadin' a procession in a wooden overcoat; it's been so long since I scribbled you any few lines since we took to shootin' it in this burg on the regular. To talk scripture, Red, we been SOME busy keepin' track of the times in this Ville by them sad waves, an' all the time we wasn't, on a fairy job, we had to lamp the doin's of Old Eagle-Eye an' keep tab on 'him an' that 4 cyl. Hay-burner, Morvich model, what he patrols with.

Well, Red boy, this zone is all to the merry on these fryin' days, we got more good-lookin' Janes: Single, Tied-up, Cut-loose an' Sod, then there's fiddlers in Tampa. If a Jane don't have four dates, go to two Melon parties, an' Jazz till 2 of the A. M. why, she says she's doggone lonesome that she has the Rusty Blues. Yea, Bo, they got the calendar so crowded they ain't got no margin left, Big doin's ALL the time.

They throwed away that lil Rob't Fulton what used to chug over the Bay, an' now they got a real man-o-war what turns into a Palace de Jazz soon's the Moon rises, an' folks get aboard at One Berry per each an' Pick Cherries, till they brain addles.

No, Red, they ain't passin' a thing up down here; that Moonlight big is a raisin' cain in the game under the left ribs. We heard a guy say today that him an' a sweetie was dippin' it on the Pavil back of the Oriental Eats palace, when the guy remarks: "Kiddo, just lookit that sassy Moon what's Kilowattin' things out on the bay?" He says the Jane raises up their gloves of blue an' whispers: "Boy, less don't let it go to waste, if its gotta go to anythin' I tell letta go to waist right, eh?" That guy says he's gotta kinda slidin' motion in his feet, an' never stopped till they was when he could feel the effects of the moonlight. "An' that kid's been in the zone since. Red, if old Luna stars in the job much longer they ain't tellin' what kinds jobs the clerk of the court's gotta have a lil later on."

But, Bo, you know this old world is made up of so dern many kinda people that we bet they's got plenty what'll be glad to get shut of the moon in yamin' time, eh?

The great stumblin' block, tho, Red, is Old H. C. L., him being still on the job ever since the war. If it warn't for that, they'd be a lotta folks huntin' lil 3-room cottages. But what's the use, eh?

You'd oughta be here on Sat'dy, Red, an' Sunday, too; we gotta raise the roof, Bo, an' let the sunshine of joy shed bliss over the multitude; they's gotta be the biggest Regatta what ever Regatted on the bosom of the deep down here, an' I betcha if he hears about it the old Ex-Kaiser'd be green in the face with envy an' sorry he'd not have the chance to see the seens. We gotta have every kinda boat made in them races, an' old Doc Cline's gotta breeze 'em up as much as he can. That night they's gotta Jazz 'til the alarm clock rings, go home for a few minutes an' come back for Water-Sports all day Sunday. Them foresaid Sports ain't gotta be all, neither, Red; we gotta make Spanish-Port pull in her horns on a Battin' Revue. That last, Red, is more of a Dimple Show then anythin' else, you know, that's where all the best lookin' Janes get a chance to make the supreme REVEAL. I reckon them Oculists are gotta have one more job testin' eyes on the next day; you know, Bo, that shore hard on the eyes.

Red, I most forgotta tell you: you remember that joint what useta pass for a Hashery under a Shakespere name? Well, Bo, she's the real Simon pure article these days: some local guys what had some sand in they craws, put up the Mazuma an' took it over; then they started into revisin' the edition, till now we sport one of the Best Ever, an' it jumped from the Old English down to cases what folks can digest by callin' her The Bay Hotel. They Jazzed it enough to run all them old spooks out, an' now she trails along with the merry.

You wouldn't know this old burg no more, Red, less you'd seen it before.

Well, Bo, that's all I got up my sleeve, exceptin' some junk what I'd hafta whisper in your cauliflower, for it's painted the same color as your blaes, an' won't keep off'n ice.

Hopin' you'll jump down to this Coney of the Gulf some day.

I'm yours to a cinder,

ST. MARGARET'S MEMORIAL HOME OPENED.

First of Women and Children Out From New Orleans Occupy Home For Season—Will Remain For Two Weeks, When Another Group Will Arrive.

The James Hubert Blenk Memorial Home, operated under the auspices of the Daughters of St. Margaret, at New Orleans, was formally opened for the season, when a group of fifty women and children combined arrived during the early part of the week and will remain for a two weeks' vacation, when another group will follow to occupy the space made vacant. The place (formerly the home of Mayor O'Brien) is maintained by the St. Margaret's Daughters. On the arrival Tuesday the party celebrated the Fourth by a watermelon party on the lawn front. Mrs. H. M. Vallette is president of the Blenk Home. The party did not reach here earlier on account of the building of the Bay sea wall.

On the committee in charge of the party are Mrs. L. Yeates, Mrs. K. K. Vocklan and Miss Murphy. Other groups will be sent to the home every two weeks. The Blenk Home closes in the latter part of August.

INJUNCTION HALTS INTERFERENCE BY "BLUE" LAW FORCE.

Vicksburg, Miss., July 7.—Chancellor B. N. Thomas, of Greenville, has granted the Vicksburg Herald an injunction restraining county and city officials from interfering with the publication and sale of its Sunday morning issues.

The Herald will be issued Sunday morning under the injunction. Last Saturday the authorities announced all "blue" laws would be enforced and warned the Herald management that employees who worked after midnight Saturday night would be arrested. As a result the Sunday morning Herald was issued Monday.

The action taken by the authorities followed the presentation of a petition adopted at a mass meeting of 235 men and women, called by the Federation of Protestant Laymen of Vicksburg and Warren county to suppress Sunday baseball, Sunday moving pictures, pool rooms, disorderly houses and bootlegging. Mayor Hayes said he would enforce the Sunday laws to the very letter.

Everything was closed last Sunday. A bootblack was arrested for shinning shoes, three newsboys for selling papers, and a small merchant for opening his grocery store. The newsboys were haled into police court, and the case dismissed, but the others were fined $20 each. Mayor Hayes said the town will be "lighter next Sunday."

Firestone
GUM-DIPPED CORDS
-and Their High Mileage Records-

The high mileage records of Firestone Cords continue to emphasize the fact that Firestone methods are different and better. These records, steadily increasing in number and in mileage totals, justify the Firestone contention that there is one best way to build tires.

Among the primary sources of Firestone extra mileage is double gum-dipping—the saturation of the cord plies in a vat of liquid gum—thus coating each cord and virtually eliminating internal heat and friction.

Another is Firestone air bag curing, with its 200 pound pressure, which places every cord accurately and equalizes the tension.

By blending the rubbers of different plantations and types, and by tempering it before mixing, Firestone men add still more mileage.

Many cord tires are good—a few are better—Firestone users say one is best.

Those who have already experienced Firestone mileage, have stopped shopping and experimenting—they have made these cords standard equipment. Investigate your friends' success with Firestone Cords—and buy your next tire accordingly. Come in and get your share of extra mileage.

HANCOCK COUNTY'S REPRESENTATIVE ANNOUNCES FOR SENATE.

At Fourth of July Celebration at Picayune He Gave This Announcement Out, 'According to the Picayune Item.

We didn't know barbecued meat, dill pickles and baker's bread would make a fellow 'out with it' until we observed its effect on a lot of superstitious fellows on the picnic grounds Tuesday. Evidently Bruce Braland and Sugar Bilbo flavored the meat with political sauce; as it went so far as to set W. J. Flemming in action. We do not believe it was altogether a big feed that was talking, either, for we have been hearing all along he would be a candidate for Senate from the Fortieth District, composed of Lamar, Pearl River and Hancock counties. So Tuesday Representative W. J. Flemming coolly walked up to the political ring and tossed his hat in and waited for a challenge, but none came. The only thing we heard was a fellow saying, 'I'm for him, don't care who runs against him.'—Picayune Item.

The town of Waveland having presented its bill for its pro rata of ad valorem tax due the Town of Waveland by Hancock County for the year 1921, the Board of the opinion that the same should be returned to the Clerk of this Board and that he report back at the next meeting of this Board as to its correctness.

CITY ECHOES.

—Bay-Waveland Regatta today.

—Elmwood Manor has reopened for its active summer season. A barbecue for the immediate future is being planned.

—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Grace, of New Orleans, are among the recent arrivals in Waveland, and are at their beautiful villa for the summer.

—Mrs. Gaspard Pierre and family, of New Orleans, have left the Avalon residence on Main street and moved here last week to spend the summer season.

—Miss Stella Gex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gex, has returned home from Gulfport, where she has derived a major operation, and is convalescing.

—Mrs. E. L. Stream and daughter, who recently returned from a short trip to the Pacific Coast, are at home again, after their enjoyable outing. They expect to spend the winter at El Paso, Texas, and spent part of the late winter in Southern California.

—Mr. Eugene Ansley, recent graduate of St. Stanislaus College, and gentlemanly and popular young son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ansley, left Monday for St. Louis, Mo., where he has taken a responsible position with one of the largest construction companies of the Middle West.

—Dr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Brierre have arrived at their recently purchased home in Waveland Terrace and are domiciled for the summer. Both the doctor and his accomplished wife are extremely popular and their presence will prove quite an acquisition to the Waveland summer colony.

—Hon. Edgar M. Lane, candidate for the Supreme bench from the Southern District, spent Thursday in Bay St. Louis and vicinity and "mixed" considerably with our people. He informs us he has traveled considerably, met many of the people and he feels encouraged. He says of his success at the polls in August there seems no doubt.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gragnon, daughter, Miss Laura, and son, Horton, who are visiting relatives here en route to Southern California, where they will reside in future, are enjoying their week's visit at the home of Mrs. A. J. Gragnon. They are remaining over for the regatta festivities and will continue their journey westward in their beautiful Studebaker car.

—Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Sauvier, of Bay St. Louis, but now residing at Greenwood, Miss., will learn with interest of the announcement which comes from that city last Sunday, June 9, 1922, to the effect that the stork presented the young couple with a girl, weighing nine and one-half pounds. This is Postmaster Sauvier's thirteenth grandchild. Who says "13" is unlucky?

—Mr. M. E. Ansley, who has made a success of the real estate business the past year or two, will return to St. Louis some time next week, heading an insistent call by the firm of contractors and construction that he was formerly associated with. Although he leaves here with reluctance the firm has so urged him and made his salary sufficiently attractive to attract his return to St. Louis and his former position, an executive one.

—Accompanied by a double-column portrait, the Atlanta Journal, announces the engagement of Miss Lillian Gertrude Guerra, youngest daughter of the late R. J. Guerra and Mrs. H. F. Mattox, of this city, to Mr. John Edward Harris, the wedding to be solemnized August 23rd, in Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Harris is a prominent young man of Atlanta, chief clerk for Proctor & Gamble, in the distributing department for the Southern district.

—Our readers, particularly property owners, must not lose sight of a legal advertisement—City Ordinances—which appeared in last week's issue and again in this week's issue of The Echo, concerning the abolishing of all surface toilets within a given district and the placing instead of sanitary toilets. This is a considerable item of expense in bulk and it will comparatively mean more to many an individual. It might be well to attend to the matter early and "get busy." With the constant growth and subsequent congestion of the city this measure is well taken and becomes necessary.

—Henry Z. Krohn, for seven years actively connected with the typographical department of The Sea Coast Echo, during which time he made this city his home, passed away at an early hour Thursday morning, after an illness extending since the time he left here. He was a Connecticut, aged 64 years. His funeral took place from the residence of his brother-in-law, William Senat, in Algiers, and his remains were interred in the McDonoughville cemetery. He was faithful and loyal to every trust, and God never made a more conscientious and upright citizen. He was unmarried.

BAY ST. LOUIS AMUSEMENTS.

John Gilbert's Dual Role Made Him Star.

John Gilbert, who appears for the first time as a star in "Glean of Dawn," the Fox production, which comes to the A. & G. Theatre, was subjected to a very fair test in "Shame," a special Fox picture, in which he enacted a dual role—father and son. The father, a young man, is slain in a foreign land, and the son, years later, appears as a young man in San Francisco.

The only difference in facial make-up between father and son was that the father wore a faint moustache, while the son was clean shaven. Therefore, it was up to Gilbert to so differentiate the two characters in manner and bearing as to give the audience two distinct personalities in spite of the facial resemblance. This John Gilbert did—and did so successfully that, backed by his previous record, William Fox promptly decided that in this young man he had the material of which successful stars are made.

Played With Bernhardt, Now With Miles Minter.

Gaston Gilbert, who will be seen as leading man in Mary Miles Minter in "Her Wives' Men," which opens next week at the A. & G. Theatre, came to America as a juvenile lead with Madame Sarah Bernhardt on her last American tour.

He has been seen in pictures with Marguerite Clark in "Let's Elope," with Norma Talmadge in "The Brand of Woman," also in "The Lost Battalion," "The World and His Wife," and as the young violinist in "Humoresque." In Canada recently he was featured in several pictures made from Ralph Connor's books, "The Foreigner" and "Cameron of the Monted."

POWERFUL PICTURE STORY.
Cecil B. De Mille's Paramount Production "Fool's Paradise" Is Excellent.

Like so many other successful Cecil B. De Mille successes, the story of "Fool's Paradise," which comes to the A. & G. Theatre next week, has a two-fold source. The basic theme was suggested by Leonard Merrick's short story, "The Laurels and the Lady." This theme was developed and elaborated, the scene of the action transferred to an American setting and a tremendous dramatic moment constructed by the authors, Beulah Marie Dix and Sada Cowan. The combined efforts of the several writers has produced a story that boasts of both power and originality, the theme—a problem of love and sacrifice as old and as new as the human race—has been presented and solved with the vividness and sharply drawn characterization that is typical of Cecil B. De Mille productions alone. The principal roles are played by Dorothy Dalton, Mildred Harris, Conrad Nagel, Theodore Kosloff, John Davidson and Julia Faye. The cast is large and capable.

Presenting the Evidence.

Richard Barthelmess cannot be accused of being lacking in business acumen. When they were casting for "Tol'able David," in which he is to make his initial appearance as a First National star, he insisted that Miss Marion Abbott be signed to play the part of his mother.

"Miss Abbott is not only a fine actress," explained the young star, "but has never appeared in pictures and I am anxious for her to see at first hand that the salaries are not all the press agents say they are. You see, she's a landlord, and my lease expires this year." At the A. & G. Theatre in Bay St. Louis next week.

"A TALE OF TWO WORLDS."

Remarkable Story by Gouverneur Morris—Leatrice Joy, Leading Actress. His intelligence and his physical courage. The spur for all his efforts is an American girl who has been brought to San Francisco's Chinatown after her parents were killed in the Boxer uprising of 1899. This exciting tale is by Gouverneur Morris, one of the Eminent Authors whose productions are being made at the Goldwyn studios. It was directed by Frank Lloyd.

A second part of satisfaction is the acting of beautiful Leatrice Joy, as the American girl. Miss Joy, it will be remembered, played the role of Bunty in the Goldwyn production of "Bunty Pulls the Strings." Not only is she acting in "A Tale of Two Worlds," excellent, but the production itself equals any that has yet come from the Goldwyn workshop, and this is no small praise. Miss Joy is from New Orleans, where she is well known.

One of the scenic features of the picture is the faithful reproduction of a Chinese street in San Francisco. It is real enough for natives to recognize the shops. All in all, this picture not only tells a good story in a splendid manner, but also reveals a page of history beautifully and dramatically.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR PRIMARY ELECTION

STATE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE HOLDS MEETING.

Prescribes Qualifications for Voting and How Same Are To Be Determined.

Jackson, Miss., July 1.—The State Democratic executive committee met here today at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Senate chamber. The chief business before the session was the question of prescribing qualifications for voting in the Democratic primaries, and how same are to be determined. The committee adopted resolutions distinctly defining those entitled to vote, but left it to the officers of election to test their qualifications.

There were nineteen members present in person or by proxy out of the twenty-four. Three vacancies were reported to be filled as follows: Mrs. Howard Williams, of Hattiesburg, in place of N. W. Mounier; W. H. Alexander, of Bay Springs, in place of C. W. Thigpen, and Geo. H. Nobles, of Raleigh, in place of E. M. Lane.

The secretary was instructed to send out the regular sample official ballot to be used as a guide in making up the ballots for use in the various counties. Resolutions were also adopted calling attention to the working of the absent voter law.

The committee had nothing to do with fixing the date of the primaries, as they are fixed by statute for the third Tuesday in August. The resolutions adopted were as follows:

Whereas, a primary election is to be held throughout Mississippi on Tuesday, August 15, 1922, for the selection of a Democratic candidate for the office of United States senator, one Supreme Court judge from the Southern District, both for the unexpired and regular term; a congressman from each congressional district in the State, and a judge of the circuit and chancery courts in each judicial district of said State; and,

Whereas, the State Democratic executive committee is duly mindful of the obligations as well as the penalties imposed by Section 3717, Chapter 3, Code 1906 (Hemingway's Code, section 6409, in which is found this language:

"The primary election officers... shall have the powers and perform the duties, where not otherwise provided, required of such officers in a general election, and any and every act of omission which by law is an offense when committed in or about or in respect to such general elections, shall be an offense committed in, or about or in respect to a primary election." Therefore, be it

Law Is Quoted.

Resolved, by the Democratic State Executive Committee, That by virtue of the authority vested in us under Section 3717 of the code of 1906, Hemingway's Code, Section 6409, the following rules and regulations are hereby established to govern and control said primary election, to-wit:

That only white Democrats who are duly and legally qualified electors that voted the Democratic ticket in the presidential election of 1920, or who would have done so had they gone to the election, or been legally entitled to vote in that election, be allowed to vote in such primary.

By the words, "duly and legally qualified electors," is meant Democrats (not those who simply call themselves Democrats and who voted the Republican or Socialist ticket in the presidential election of 1920) and those who have paid all taxes required for the year 1921, on or before the first day of February, this year, as well as all taxes required for the year 1920, and who have resided in the State two years and will have resided within the election district in which they offer to vote one year preceding the 7th day of November, 1922, and who are otherwise lawfully qualified to vote.

County Democratic executive committees and precinct election officers are reminded that Section 3717, Chapter 111, Code 1906, Section 6397, Hemingway's Code, requires that the County executive committee shall meet on the first or second day after each primary election; shall receive and canvass the returns, which must be made within the time fixed by law for the deterring of general elections; and that "The vote for State and district offices shall be tabulated by precincts and certified" to the proper authority as required by law, "within thirty-six hours after the returns are canvassed and the result ascertained."

Must Be Democrats.

That county Democratic executive committees are hereby directed to preserve the ballots and the returns from each and every voting precinct, together with a list of voters who to be shown at the A. & G. Theatre next week, reveals much for the photoplaygoer to be thankful for. In the first place, it has a story, a really gripping story of love and intrigue, in which a young American is given the opportunity of his life to exercise voted, in the ballot boxes used at each precinct.

That the officers holding said election are hereby required to challenge any person who is suspected of having been affiliated with any other than the Democratic party within the last two years, and as authorized by Section 3717 of the Code of 1906, already referred to, shall swear such person as to his party affiliation and shall keep a list of such names and furnish the same to the county Democratic executive committee, to be prosecuted for perjury if justified by the facts.

That the various county Democratic committees, throughout the State, are hereby requested to see that the foregoing resolutions are faithfully carried out; and a copy of these resolutions be printed and sent out with each and every ballot box.

Absent Voter Law.
Be it resolved, by the Democratic executive committee that attention is hereby called to the fact that the Absent Voter Law is still in full force and effect, and that the chairman of Democratic county executive committees and the press of the State are requested to call attention to the existence of said statute, in order that State voters on election day may have opportunity to avail themselves of its privileges.

—Joseph Laurent, who recently sold his business known as "Joe's Cafe," opposite the Bay Hotel, has leased the McDonald building, corner of Main and Front streets, and has had it already equipped for a similar business he held to be known as the "Little Gem Cafe." He will cater to the popular trade.

—Mrs. L. Franz, accompanied by Mr. Franz, has returned from New Orleans, where she underwent a serious operation, and is doing exceedingly well; in fact extraordinarily well. This couple have hosts of friends in Bay St. Louis, and elsewhere as well, who will learn of the success of the operation.
